CARNEGIE HALL

Weill Music Institute

National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America

In the summer of 2013, Carnegie Hall's Weill Music Institute brings together the brightest young players (ages 16–19) from across the country to form the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America. Following a comprehensive audition process and a two-week training residency with leading professional orchestra musicians, these remarkable teenagers embark on an international tour to some of the great music capitals of the world.

Registration Deadline: September 7, 2012
