They say let your dreams be bigger than fear. Right now, we dream of the day where artists, creatives, non-profits, etc. can go back to normalcy and thrive. ✨ While that might take time, with #SignsOfSolidarityATL we are first letting our love be bigger than our fears. Let's spread love and share how much we care for one another. ❤️ Thanks to the wonderful @barryleeart in collaboration with @orange_barrel_media, we are reminded how BIG love can triumph fear, especially right now when we all need it the most. Stay safe friends! 🙏
