WHAT OTHER STARTUPS SAY ABOUT US

Equidam is a fantastic tool. It gave me confidence in my two valuations. It helped us set a solid pre-money, and we actually over-subscribed our round. The detailed report meant that potential investors could review the methodology without a meeting, by just accessing it in our data room.

Make it worth it

At Equidam we believe that a fair transaction is just the starting point of a healthy company. True entrepreneurs should make sure efforts and resources are invested in a worthy pursuit for all stakeholders involved, from founders to society as a whole. Valuation, as the combination of potential and risk, is the tool that makes this possible.
