DESCRIPTION

PETZL Elios Climbing Helmet

The Petzl Elios is a low profile helmet that's easy to adjust, comfortable and well-ventilated.

Features/Benefits:

More Great Choices:

EMS MEN'S TECHWICK ESSENTIALS

- The improved dial adjustment system is quick and easy to use, even when wearing the helmet
- Using a combination of shell and foam technology, it's perfect for rock climbing, ice climbing, mountaineering, canyoning and caving
- Injection molded ABS shell is both lightweight and durable
- Expanded polystyrene liner absorbs impacts
- Adjustable chinstrap, nape height and headband for an extremely comfortable fit
- Easy-to-use molded adjustment wheel quickly dials in the headband size, even while the helmet is being worn
- Chin strap position adjusts forward or backward and redesigned side-release chin strap buckle is positioned off to the side for comfort
- Narrow polyester webbing straps offer improved comfort
- Headlamp attachment with 4 optimally placed clips
- Compatible with VIZION face shield
