From the manufacturer

There are lots of decongestant sprays out there, but Afrin is the #1 doctor & pharmacist recommended decongestant nasal spray brand.

AFRIN NO DRIP EXTRA MOISTURIZING PUMP MIST

Afrin No Drip Extra Moisturizing Pump Nasal Mist brings you fast, powerful nasal and sinus congestion relief. Its no-drip formula means that it can relieve your nasal congestion caused by a cold or allergy without the discomfort of liquid dripping down from your nose or down your throat, letting you get on with work, study or having fun. The mist also contains glycerin to rehydrate nasal passages.

Breathe more freely instantly

Whether it's from a winter cold or a summer allergy, it's a pain to be suffering from nasal or sinus congestion. Afrin helps unblock your nose in seconds so you can get the very most out of every minute, providing relief from nasal and sinus congestion, as well as sinus pressure. The mist also contains glycerin to rehydrate nasal passages.

No Drip technology

For 20 years, Afrin's formula has been providing on-the-spot relief without dripping from the nose or down the throat. The mist stays where you spray it to directly target the source of congestion.

All day or all night

The 12 hours of decongestant relief means a blocked or stuffy nose won't bother you for a whole day, letting you get on with life and also have a more restful night thanks to Afrin's powerful formula.

How does Afrin work?

Afrin contains active ingredient oxymetazoline, which targets the source of congestion directly to shrink dilated blood vessels and swollen nasal passages and allow air to flow more easily. It is also a long-lasting decongestant that can unblock your nose for up to 12 hours.

I've been using Afrin for years to help clear my bad sinuses. I'd be lost without it (and NeilMed Sinus Rinse). It is very effective and, unlike decongestant tablets like Sudafed, does not raise my blood pressure. It is very effective.

You must, however, not abuse it or you'll be worse off than when you started. No more than 2 or 3 sprays per nostril, no more than twice a day and for no more than 3 days in a row. If you need it for 3 days in a row (I seldom do) and you're still having issues, it's time to see your doctor.

I'm generally a proponent of generic OTC medications, but not here. I've had problems with burning and ineffectiveness with some of those so, in this case, I stick with the name brand.

★★★★★ Rapidly Clears Up Any Congestion!

Reviewed in the United States on August 9, 2018

It's not a good idea to rely on Afrin as a daily nasal inhaler. But my sinus infection prevented me from breathing at all through my nose, and Afrin was the only thing that offered relief. So while eating UMF rated manuka honey to cure the infection, I used Afrin every day for months. And as soon as the infection began to fade, I no longer needed to use it.

I like the No Drip Extra Moisturizing formula best. Although most of it doesn't drip down your throat, it's inevitable for some to go down. This made my throat feel very dry, unlike the original formula. I often used the Afrin right before bed which helped it go down my throat. So it's better to use it while staying upright. Because of this, the moisturizing formula is more comfortable than the ones with menthol, which feel weird going down your throat.

As far as the effectiveness goes, there's really nothing that beats Afrin. It works extremely well. No matter how bad your congestion is, your nasal passageways will clear up. So it can Read more

★★★★★ Almost impossible to get the bottle opened

Reviewed in the United States on October 26, 2019

After struggling for 5 min to get the mega shrink wrap off the bottle I was faced with the poor design of opening the bottle. Directions said hold down the white tabs on the white cap while you grasp the red grooves on the top red cap then try to turn it counter clockwise. Gave up trying to do this 2 part ridiculous pretzel maneuver. My nose is running my head hurts and there it sits unopened. Don't buy this, nothing should be this difficult to open.

So on here it seems everyone loves this product, every other website I visited people did not have similar experiences. I used it and instantly felt searing pain in my sinuses and nasal cavity that continued for 24 hours. It added eye pressure too. The urgent care visit was my favorite part. Seems like this is common and happens to many many people.

★★★★★ Afrin really works, but not for long term use

Reviewed in the United States on September 11, 2017

Size: 0.5 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

This works so well at opening up my stuffy nose. I love how it works like magic, but hate that you are only supposed to use it for 3 days in a row. It has the potential to raise your blood pressure, but lots of products come with this concern when you read the information on the box. Oh well. At least I can breathe through my nose again. I tried a drugstore generic brand and it didn't work. I also tried 2 different natural nasal sprays from Amazon. One went moldy within a few weeks, and the other one was painful to use (it burns!) and didn't help. Neti pot helps temporarily. Afrin helps for like 10 hours.

★★★★☆ A double edged sword....

Reviewed in the United States on March 15, 2016

Size: 0.5 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

This product will work to help clear stuffy and congested sinuses. But don't be like me and ignore the instructions on the box.....it is only to be used for a maximum of 3 days in a row before you have to take at least several days break. If you don't, you run a high risk of getting "rebound rhinitis" - which is the snotty, congested, blocked nose symptoms coming right back at you. And trust me - this is no fun at all.

This means if you use this product to help clear your nose when you have a bad cold or allergies, and the condition lasts for 7 days - you should only use this for max. 3 days and try other methods (saline sprays, OTC syrups, allergy pills or something your Dr suggests) for the rest of the duration of your problem.

Some tips I found for using the Afrin No Drip:

 Shake the bottle before use. This seems to make it spray better as a mist and not get cloggy

★★★★★ Works Great

Reviewed in the United States on July 17, 2020

Size: 0.5 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

First thing that I need to say is that I hate nose spray with a passion. I can't stand spraying anything up my nose as it freaks me out and then having it drip down the back of my throat, gross.

Now, with that said I actually don't mind this nose spray. It actually lives up to the no-drip that is claimed and it doesn't run down the back of my throat making me gag and all that. It also is a very fine mist so it doesn't hurt or feel as uncomfortable as every other nose spray does feel. I still hate spraying stuff up my nose but this stuff is actually pretty great. It relieves my stuffiness within like five minutes and because my nose is constantly running it needs extra moisturizing and this has helped a lot with the nose bleeds I've been having.

Totally recommend this to anyone who needs something to help their sinuses but hates nose sprays. This one will totally work for you.
