AUG 24, 2017

Recently our customers requested that Ripple bring together leaders in banking and blockchain who are committed to changing the way the world moves money today. Challenge accepted. Today, we're pleased to announce Swell: The Future Is Here, taking place in Toronto from October 16-18.

Swell is attracting a roster of payments experts and industry luminaries to discuss trends, success stories of blockchain implementations and real-world blockchain use cases to meet changing customer demands for global payments.

Ripple announces #SwellbyRipple, coming to Toronto this October
