INSTALLMENT LOANS

How do installment loans work?

Installment loans allow the borrower to make biweekly or monthly payments over the term of the loan (18 months for this product), until the loan is paid off. Because they don't have to be paid off all at once, they're typically available in larger loan amounts than other types of short-term loans. People use installment loans for a variety of reasons – to consolidate bills, buy a vehicle, cover unplanned expenses or take care of other money needs. By making payments on time and paying the loan off in full, installment loan borrowers may even be able to build or improve their credit.

How much can I borrow with this installment loan?

Installment loan amounts are available up to $5,000. The amount you may qualify for will depend on a number of factors – including legal and underwriting criteria. Apply now to find out how much you will be approved for. The application is fast and easy!

Do you check my credit rating when I apply for an installment loan? Yes. We request credit information from credit reporting agencies.

THE LOAN APPLICATION PROCESS

- An active checking account that allows direct deposit.
- A working telephone number that we can verify.
- Since you'll be asked to provide details about your gross income, net income and pay frequency on the application, it will help to have your most recent pay stub or other income documentation on hand.

What are the steps to get an installment loan?

- 1. Complete and submit your online application.
- 2. Review and select your loan amount, total payback amount and payment due dates.
- 3. Electronically sign your loan agreement.

Will I need to provide a blank check?

No. Since the installment loan is processed online, we will only need your routing and account numbers from your checking account.

How long does it take to get approved for an installment loan? When you submit your application, you'll receive a prompt answer on whether you qualify and the amount you're eligible to borrow.

How do I sign my installment loan documents?

Online, you can sign your installment loan documents by checking the "eSign" box when prompted.

When you check the eSign box, it serves as a legally binding electronic signature. Always review your loan agreement, the privacy policy and any other terms or conditions that apply before you sign your application.

When and how will I receive my funds from my installment loan?

Once you are approved, your loan will be processed. If we are able to verify your information and originate your loan before 8:00 p.m. ET, in most cases you can expect to receive your funds the following business day. We are unable to process loans on days when banks are closed. If you apply late in

PAYMENTS AND YOUR ACCOUNT

Can I change my loan payment due date?

Unfortunately you will not be able to change your loan payment due date.

How is my loan payment date calculated?

Your loan payment date is based on the information you provided on your Paycheck Frequency and Next Pay date.

When will my installment loan payments be due – and what are my repayment options?

Your payments may be electronically withdrawn. To view your payment schedule, refer to your loan agreement. Before your loan's due date, you may also be able to set up a different form of payment – such as debit card, cashier's check, money order or MoneyGram, please call us at 1-800-316-4220. Repaying your loan earlier could save you money on interest.

Can I call or visit your affiliate company, Check `n Go if I want to make an installment loan payment or get help with my installment loan application?

They're ready to provide the same friendly service that you've come to expect.

After I pay off my installment loan, can I get another installment loan? Yes, you can apply for a new installment loan after your current loan has been paid off. Keep in mind that there may be a waiting period before you can apply for a new installment loan. You may also be asked to provide a bank statement showing that your loan was paid off.

How can I view my account information or check the status of my installment loan application?

can check the status of any outstanding loans, update information, review documents, apply for a new installment loan, check to see if there are any documents you still need to send in or see when your next payment is due. To print copies of any documents, simply select the print option in your Web browser.

Why do I have to open an account online if I already have an Check `n Go account with the affiliated Check `n Go?

Since the installment loan is issued through our online channel, a new account must be created to apply.

REFINANCING

Once I have an installment loan, will I have the option to refinance

Refinancing is an option that provides more time to pay and additional funds. You may be able to refinance once you have an installment loan. If you become eligible to refinance, we will notify you by email. You can also check your eligibility by logging into My Account.

How does refinancing work?

Once you're eligible, you can easily refinance by following these simple steps:

- 1. Sign in to My Account
- 2. Tell us how much you want to borrow
- 3. Get a quick decision and electronically sign your documents
- 4. Receive your additional funds
