Sydney is an aloof man who feels okay with his place in the world. After a less than stellar performance in the chow hall, he is placed into lockdown with his verbally abusive cellmates. Seemingly out of the blue, an unexpected opportunity for early release presents itself. With a second chance on the outside, Sydney prepares himself for a journey of redemption from his dark past. However, his 7 kins may have a different plan for him.

Editorial Reviews

Review

"His 7 Deadly Kins by The R-n-R Hour™ is a thought-provoking novel. With elements that are thrilling, contemplative, spiritual and downright unbelievable, readers are pulled into an eye-opening journey of self-reflection and salvation. The author succeeds in weaving philosophy throughout this fast-paced narrative, and the pervading themes of reconciliation and redemption are strong and well-developed. The book delivers a powerful story from a unique perspective, for an unusual and memorable read." Self-Publishing Review
