iPhone Screenshots

Realize a superior clean with the new revolutionized Oral-B mobile experience.

Studies show that the average person brushes for only 30-60 seconds, compared to the dentist- recommended 2 minutes. Also, up to 80% of people spend an insufficient amount of time brushing in at least one zone of their mouth. This includes 60% of people who either don't brush their back molars at all or don't spend enough time when they do[1]. more
